Liturgical Date: Year A, Christ the King, November 22nd, 2020

Presenter Aaron Tan

Focus Reading Matthew 25: 31-46

Message 7 minutes 30 seconds “The parable of the sheep and the goats”

Discussion Starters

- 1 Do you agree with the Speaker’s incentive that loving others for Jesus, is better than to do it because we want to go to heaven? Why or why not?
- 2 How has your past failures motivated you to love Jesus more?
- 3 Think of a moment where you or someone you know has had their needs met by your faith community. Share it with the group.
- 4 Is it good to care for our Christian brothers and sisters, for then the world will know we are Jesus’ disciples (John 13:35). How can we let the light of our love for one another shine before those outside of the church?

Other Lectionary readings for the day

Ezekiel 34: 11-16, 20-24 God promises to gather God’s people from the exile where they have been scattered and to restore them, make them safe, and strengthen them.

Psalms 100 All the earth is summoned to give thanks and remember that they belong to god, the great shepherd who is also the creator.

Ephesians 1:15-23 Paul gives thanks for all the believers in Ephesus and commends them for their love for all the saints. He prays.... for God’s power to work in them as it did in Christ.

All Age Message Melissa Neumann “Giving to others and showing God’s love”
Matthew 25:35-36 is talking about showing God’s love through action. There are many simple ways we can do this but Jesus said that when we do this for someone else, we are doing it for Him.
