Focus Readings Mark 4:35-41

Message 8 minutes 25 seconds “Storming”

Discussion Starters

- 1. What struck you about this message?
- 2. What are some of the storms that have struck your life?
- 3. What are some of the storms that have struck your church?
- 4. Who in your community could benefit from a genuine experience of peace?

Lectionary readings for the day

1 Samuel 17:1a, (4-11,19-23), 32-49 God enables David to defeat the Philistine giant David.

Psalms 9:9-20 This individual lament presupposes that the psalmist is in dire trouble. However, the psalmist remembers that God is a stronghold for the oppressed, that God remembers the needy, and that God does not forsake those who trust God.

2 Corinthians 6:1-13 Although glitzy super-apostles told the community that Paul's sufferings showed that he could not be an authentic apostle, Paul insists that God's support in suffering is proof of his authority.

Rev Steve Everist

Steve has (mostly) joyfully served the last 27 years serving 2 Uniting Church congregations and loves what he does. Steve enjoys nothing more than playing music for people for worship and he sings and plays guitar, keyboards and bass. Steve enthusiastically works on staff with wife Deb, who is a great servant to the congregation and a powerhouse of creativity.
