

Liturgical Date: Year B, Christ the King, 21st November 2021

Presenter                      Mrs Carolyn Sharp

Focus Readings              John 18:33-37

Message              9 minutes 15 seconds      “What kind of King is this?”

Discussion Starters

- 1 What do you hear God saying to you today?
- 2 What does it mean to you to be truthful?
- 3 How do you feel when people have different ideas about truth?
- 4 How does your congregation share truth in the community?

Other Lectionary readings for the day

Psalm 132:1-12 The psalm celebrates the sure promise to David that a son of David will always sit at David's throne, provided he faithfully keeps the covenant with God.

2 Samuel 23:1-7 In his last words, David declares that God has made an everlasting covenant with him. The spirit of the Lord speaks through David, who declares that one who rules justly and in fear of God is like the light of the morning.

Revelation 1:4b-8 John greets the church in the name of the faithful witness, firstborn of the dead, who will be revealed as the ruler of all the kings of the earth.

(Excerpted from Abingdon's Theological Companion to the Lectionary, Year B. Copyright c2014 by Abingdon Press, an imprint of the United Methodist Publishing House. Used by permission. All rights reserved.)

All Age Message    Mrs Carolyn Sharp              “How big is our God?”

Length      5 Minutes 0 seconds

Precis of AAM

The English alphabet with its 26 letters helps us to communicate all the words we have to say. The words Alpha and Omega from the Greek alphabet is all that is needed to explain the time of the existence of God – here for everyone and everything no matter when they have lived or will live. Here to help us with anything and everything at any time.

Resources      Uniting in Worship (Blue Book)      Psalm 132:1-12 is not listed in Blue Book

Mrs Carolyn Sharp

I currently live in Wauchope on the Mid North coast and am Treasurer on the Church Council as well as leading some services. I'm a Mum and a Granny. I love catching up with our widespread family as often as I can. I enjoy reading, gardening, walking, knitting, crochet and puzzles and I am looking forward to seeing more of Australia.