Liturgical Date: Year C, Epiphany 5, 6th February 2022

Presenter                      Myeongcheol John Oh

Focus Readings              Psalm 138, Luke 5:1-11

Message                      12 minutes 20 seconds                      “Taking Risk”

Discussion Starters

- 1 What have you been hearing God saying to you today?
- 2 Describe a situation with which you are familiar where grace could bring about transformation?
- 3 How does your congregation create opportunities for members to experience life changing challenges?
- 4 What are the primary ways our community witnesses expressions of God’s love?

Lectionary readings for the day

Isaiah 6:1-8 (9-13). In the midst of a visual, auditory, and tangible epiphany, God’s voice summons a messenger. Isaiah responds: send me!

1 Corinthians 15:1-11 The good news of Christ’s death and resurrection is proclaimed. Paul, the self-proclaimed least of the apostles, witnesses to the grace of God. With proclamation comes belief.

All Age Message    Glenda Downie                      “Nothing can separate us from God ”

Length    4 Minutes 45 seconds

Precis of AAM

It is the beginning of the school year, maybe a new school, a new teacher. What are the things that can separate us from the love of God? Glenda does an experiment to show that nothing can separate us from God’s love – using eggs, water in a glass, toilet roll and the card with all the obstacles that separate us from God’s Love.
