Liturgical Date: Year C, Easter 4, 8th May 2022

Presenter Rev Paul Cameron

Focus Readings John 10:22-30

Message 10 minutes 20 seconds “What do you see?”

Discussion Starters

- 1 In what context do we ask the question ‘Are you the Messiah’ today?
- 2 What are the ‘works’ that you would point to as signs of God?
- 3 How do we participate in God’s works today?
- 4 How do you respond to the words not yet mentioned today in Chapter 10 vs29 (Look up the verse)?

Lectionary readings for the day

Acts 9:36-43 Peter, like Jesus before him, reclaims life from death. The resurrection of Dorcas is a prophetic seal of God’s blessings and the peace richly experienced by the merging church of Christ followers.

Psalms 23 Depicting YHWH as Shepherd and Host, this psalm has always been read as symbolising the pilgrim journey of life triumphing over the shadow of death and death itself.

Revelation 7:9-17 A great multitude of white-robed people from every race and nation gather in eternity to praise Christ as the great Lamb of God whose worthy life vindicated their lives as eternally worthy.

All Age Message “Peace Times-a book by Kate Scholes”

Length 11 minutes 43 seconds

Precis of AAM

Peace means different things to different people in different times and places. Peace is interrupted when people’s needs and wants don’t fit together and fighting can start. Pain is caused by the interruption of peace. Peacemakers are needed to restore healing and inner peace.
