Christ the King Sunday 23 Year C November 23rd

Presenter: Rev Greer Hudson

"Christ the King"

Focus Reading: Luke 23:33-43

Message: 6 minutes 25 seconds

Discussion Starters

1. What qualities of Jesus do you want to remember today?
2. What does Christ the King Sunday mean to you?
3. What kind of leadership, authority, and power is exercised in your church?
4. How we might become more like Christ our humble, gracious King?

Readings for this day

Jeremiah 23:1-6 Jeremiah relays the judgement of God on the shepherds (i.e. rulers) who have led God's people astray. The blame for the exile is placed on these leaders. God will raise up a new Davidic king.

Luke 1: 68-79 The song of Zechariah proclaims the coming of a Davidic ruler who will lead the people in the ways of peace.

Colossians 1:11-20 Paul proclaims the supreme authority of Christ. Through his life and death, God reconciles and makes peace with all things in heaven and earth.

All Age Message: Rev Greer Hudson

"Who is this King?"

Length: 3 mins 40 seconds

When you think about a King, what image comes to mind for you? A role because of Birthright, power, a position, above all? Jesus had different qualities. Healing, kindness, forgiveness, and grace. Leadership at its very best. He made us and sees us as we are.

Uniting in Worship (Blue Book). There is no set Psalm for this Sunday.
