Christ the King Sunday, Year A, November 22nd

Presenter: Rev Greg McConnell

Focus Reading: Matthew 25-31-46

Message: 6 minutes 15 seconds

"When did I do that?"

Discussion Starters

1. Why do you think both groups are taken by surprise?
2. How might this parable challenge your assumptions of how you should live as a Christian?
3. How would your Church offer care and assistance to a member who is really in need?
4. How is your church actively serving the "least" in your community?

Readings for this day

Ezekiel 34:20-24 As a good shepherd seeks and finds lost sheep to return them to the fold, God promises to gather God's people from the exile to restore them with safety and strength.

Psalms 100 All the earth is summoned to give thanks and remember that they belong to God, the great shepherd who is also the creator.

Ephesians 1:15-23 Paul gives thanks for the believers and commends them for their love for all the saints. He prays for wisdom, for their inheritance, and for God's power to work in them as it did in Christ when he was resurrected.

Intergenerational Talk: Rev Greg McConnell

Length 3 minutes 26 Seconds

"How to Serve Jesus"

Precis of IT:

Being loved, cared for, and being felt needed is not all about talk it is also about actions.

The way we treat each other by doing loving things, and doing good for people in need is also doing things for Jesus. What we do is more important than anything we can say.
